

Grateful Reflections

~ A JOURNEY OF PRAISE ~

HELLO, MY SUPPORTERS!

I am taking time to reflect on 2024 and the incredible ways God has moved in the seven nations I traveled to: Jamaica, Liberia, Sierra Leone, Gambia, Senegal, Barbados, and Brazil.

I witnessed many people accepting Jesus as their Savior or recommitting to their walk with God. I thank God for His mercy and the profound way I experienced His presence in Jamaica and Gambia. I cannot thank the Deaf Missions team enough for partnering with me to share the Jesus ASL Film in a few nations. Their dedication has been instrumental in touching countless lives for Christ.

I am deeply grateful for Adan from Global Partnership, who welcomed me onto his team. Through this, I witnessed the joy Deaf people experience when they can access God's Word. God strategically placed me in West African nations to support Bible translation projects, and it has been a privilege to see Him work so powerfully through these efforts.

I praise God for His incredible work in Africa, raising up Deaf African leaders like Kemo to expand His kingdom. Meeting him in Senegal and inviting him to Sierra Leone ignited his passion for Bible translation. Today, Kemo is helping Deaf communities gain access to Scripture in their heart language, spreading God's Word and love across African nations. I am in awe of how God continues to send laborers into the harvest to fulfill His mission.

I thank God for Kari, who joined me on the trailblazing journey to overcome barriers and create pathways to welcome people into Gambia, making God known to the Deaf community there. Not only was Kari part of this, but together, we saw how God worked through us on our challenging journey, revealing His purpose and strengthening our faith.

Additionally, I am grateful for the Deaf House in Barbados, where God used me to challenge the leaders to be equipped for His glory. It was also a place where God unveiled my passions and affirmed how my heart aligns with His plans as I worked alongside them.

Finally, I am overwhelmed with gratitude for the individuals God placed in my life during the 3-month school. These people not only supported me in completing this challenging journey but also experienced God transforming their hearts in powerful ways.

While reflecting on what God has done in others' lives, I've also taken time to consider my personal journey this year. It's not just about 'work, work, work'—reflection is crucial for seeing how God is working within us and ensuring our actions glorify Him. It's a journey of not just doing for God but also being with Him. I hope this encourages you to pause and reflect on how God has been moving in your own life as well.

In 2023, I went through a significant healing process, but I have come to realize that God's work in me is not finished. In 2024, He continued to unpack the deeper layers—wounds, struggles, and hidden 'uglies' I hadn't yet addressed. This journey brought me to a place of deeper repentance and humility, reminding me that we are all on an ongoing journey with God. Step by step, He removed my masks and worked in areas of my life I didn't even know needed healing. I thank God for the spiritual breakthroughs that continue to help me grow radiant in His love and trust Him in every season.

As I look back, I am deeply grateful for the role you've played in this journey, faithfully obeying God by stepping into His kingdom work to partner with Him. Your faithfulness and generosity have made it possible for me to travel to the nations, share God's Word, and witness His transformative work firsthand. Without your steadfast support, these opportunities to impact lives in seven nations would not have been possible.

Each life touched and every step forward has been a testament to God's provision and the community He has surrounded me with. I thank God for placing you alongside me in this mission. Together, we have seen His glory shine brightly in places that needed His light.

Thank you for being an essential part of this journey. I look forward to stepping into 2025 with you and seeing how God will continue to lead and provide.

With a Grateful Heart,
Kevlasha Humphrey
